Check first to avoid a fine

Did you know that if you hire someone to remove waste from your property, you could be fined if they fly-tip the waste?

It is your responsibility to check that any tradesperson you hire arranges for a registered carrier of waste to deal with any waste at the end of a project.

For example, they could hire a skip or, if they intend to dispose of the waste themselves they must have a waste carriers licence.

To raise awareness of this issue, Councillor Phillip Circus took to Horsham town centre.

Support Recycle Week

This week 24-31 September is Recycle Week. More of us than ever before are recycling at home, and we're proud in Horsham District to have the best recycling rate in West Sussex.

But there's always more we can do. Follow the button below to see how much of your waste you can recycle every week.

Why not send us your best re-use or recycling tips and we'll share our favourites on Twitter, just use the hashtag #RecycleWeek and tag @HorshamDC.

'A Song in the Hills' craft and art exhibition at Horsham Museum and Art Gallery

Horsham Museum and Art Gallery is delighted to present their autumn craft and art exhibition, A Song in the Hills by Jemima Jameson.

The exhibition includes artwork inspired by the landscape of rolling, wooded hills and river-valleys of the artist's Shropshire home, and the animals and birds which share her environment.
